

Four Reasons to Support the CLFP Certification

The Certified Lease & Finance Professional Certification has been around since 1985 with over 1,500 professional members across the globe.

Employees Thriving in Satisfaction and Engagement

Investing in employee growth and career progression promotes recognition and appreciation, boosting retention and fostering a stable and committed workforce.

01

Uplift in Staff Assurance and Expertise

Obtaining certification boosts employee confidence and proficiency in work tasks, aligning with the values of excellence, professionalism, warmth, and friendliness in the commercial equipment finance industry.

02

Elevated Confidence in Staff Competence

Certified employees excel by consistently delivering high-quality work because of the knowledge gained.

03

Increased Productivity

Research by Microsoft and other organizations shows certified employees are more productive due to best practices learned. Certified employees can enhance team project productivity.

04